

The purpose of this book is to teach native speakers of other languages to understand and to use the language of the law in English. In particular, it aims to teach foreign law students and lawyers how to choose, read and use original legal materials of any kind in English.

The goal of this book is to provide tuition and guidance for professionals, professionals-to-be and other interested parties regarding the correct way to express themselves in English in the professional world. In order to make the most of it and do so in a comfortable way, the starting level of English knowledge should be at least B1 (intermediate). These materials are intended, firstly, to support learning within and outside the classroom and, secondly, to enable the student to acquire his/her own the strategies and techniques necessary both to understand and produce a wide range of formal English texts and documents, and also interact in a number of communicative situations at work.
